Rules for the selection of candidates for admission to Medical Colleges.

1. Age-limit.—Candidates for admission to Medical Colleges should have completed 17 years of age on or before registration as a medical student which will be subsequent to passing the pre-registration course.

2. Selection of Madras and non-Madras candidates.—(i) In the selection of candidate, applicants belonging to the Madras Province should be given preference.

(ii) The number of seats which can ordinarily be allotted to non-Madrasi candidates is specified below :—

	Number of seats.
(1) Students sent by the Government of Travancore	4
(2) Students sent by the Government of Cochin	2
(3) Students sent by the Government of Pudukottah	1
(4) Applicants other than those coming from Travancore, Cochin and Pudukottah, preference being given to those from Banganapalli and Sandur	2
(5) Students sent by the Administration of Coorg	2
(6) Students from the Civil and Military Station, Bangalore ..	3

If applicants from the Indian States are not forthcoming in any year to fill up the seats reserved for them the vacant seats should be allotted to students belonging to the Madras Province.

(iii) The States of Travancore, Cochin and Pudukottah, and the Administration of Coorg, shall have the right to select their own candidates for whom seats are reserved, provided that the candidates selected possess the prescribed minimum educational qualifications.

(iv) If a sufficient number of candidates belonging to the Province of Madras are not forthcoming, seats can be allotted to candidates from Travancore, Cochin and Pudukottah in addition to the number reserved for them.

(v) Two Colonial Indian students may be admitted into the Medical College, Madras, if the Principals who select candidates for admission are satisfied that they are specially deserving.

3. Selection of candidates from backward and unrepresented communities.—Due regard should be paid to the admission of students from backward and unrepresented communities and the proportion prescribed in rule 19 (a) (i) of the General Rules for Provincial and Subordinate Services for recruitment to services should be kept in view in this regard.

3-A. (1) In order to secure an adequate representation of linguistic areas, so far as qualified candidates in such areas are available the total number of seats available for admission of Civil students every year, i.e., the total number of seats in the colleges minus seats actually required for admission of Military medical pupils, subjects of Indian States and those coming from outside the Province for whom seats have been reserved shall be allotted as indicated below :—

Group 1.—50·8 per cent of the seats will be allotted for the candidates from the group of districts which is predominantly Tamil, viz., Madras, Chingleput, North Arcot, Salem, Coimbatore, South Arcot, Tanjore, Trichinopoly, Madura, Ramnad, Tinnevelly and the Nilgiris.

Group 2.—38·1 per cent of the seats will be allotted for candidates from the group of districts which is predominantly Telugu, viz., Vizagapatam, East Godavari, West Godavari, Kistna, Guntur, Nellore, Cuddapah, Kurnool, Anantapur, Chittoor and Bellary.

Group 3.—11·1 per cent of the seats will be allotted for candidates from the West Coast districts, viz., South Kanara and Malabar.

For purposes of admission, the number of seats reserved for women and those available for men candidates should be taken up separately and allotments made in accordance with the percentages indicated above.

If a sufficient number of candidates belonging to each group are not forthcoming to fill all the available seats in accordance with the percentages, the balance of seats left over will be distributed among the remaining linguistic areas in the proportion in which seats have to be allotted.

If a sufficient number of women candidates are not forthcoming to fill all the seats reserved for them, the balance of the seats available will be distributed among the linguistic groups for the admission of men candidates in accordance with the percentages indicated above.

NOTE.—The ratios indicated in sub-rule (i) need not be treated as absolutely hard and fast, but selections to each group should be made so as to reach the ratios as nearly as possible. In making the selections, the need mentioned by the Surgeon-General, to provide for such outstanding candidates as there may be from the West Coast districts should be kept in view.

(2) Candidates (whether Tamil, Telugu or others) will count against the district to which they belong according to their certificates of nativity. The nativity certificate required to be furnished by the candidate indicates the district to which the candidate belongs.

(3) The instructions contained in sub-rules (1) and (2) shall be subject to the instructions already issued regarding representation of communities and classes.

4. Order of preference.—(1) In making the selection, preference should be given to candidates in the following order with due regard to the admission of unrepresented and backward communities including scheduled classes :—

(a) Those who have taken the B.A. or B.Sc. degree with Physics, Chemistry, Zoology, Botany or Physiology as the main subject in the first or second class.

10th September 1946]

(b) Those who have passed the Intermediate examination in the first class with Physics, Chemistry and Natural Science as optionals.

(c) Those who have passed the Intermediate examination in the first class with Physics, Chemistry and Mathematics as the optionals.

(d) Those who have passed the Intermediate examination in the first class with Physics, Chemistry and any other subject as the optionals.

(e) Those who have passed the B.A. or B.Sc. degree with Physics, Chemistry, Zoology, Botany or Physiology as the main subject in the third class.

(f) Those who have passed the Science group in B.A. or B.Sc. but have not qualified for the degree.

Note.—If any of these candidates of groups (e) and (f) have taken a first class intermediate they will be grouped under (b), (c) or (d) and ranked with those candidates according to the total marks obtained in Intermediate.

(g) Those who have passed Intermediate in the second class with Physics, Chemistry and Natural Science.

(h) Those who have passed Intermediate in the second class with Physics, Chemistry and Mathematics.

(i) Those who have passed Intermediate in the second class with Physics, Chemistry and any other subject as optional.

(j) Those who have passed any other examination accepted by the syndicate as sufficient for admission to the college.

(2) When any vacancies occur the Principal shall fill them up strictly in accordance with the above order of preference.

5. Reserve list of candidates.—In order that no seat in any of the colleges may be left vacant, a few more than the prescribed number of candidates, say not exceeding 20, should be selected. The list of such candidates who will form the reserve should be kept separate from the list of candidates selected for admission. Their names should not be published until they are actually required to join any one of the colleges.

6. Allotment of candidates to colleges.—Applicants should as far as possible be admitted into the college they have selected. The Principals of the Colleges, are, however, at liberty to allocate a candidate to any college should they find it necessary to do so provided that Andhra students should be given preference for admission to the Vizagapatam Medical College.

7. Reservation of seats for women candidates.—Thirty seats in the Medical College, Madras, sixteen seats in the Stanley Medical College and three seats at Vizagapatam shall be reserved for women students who satisfy the regulations for admission to the M.B.B.S. course and they shall be selected in the order of preference indicated in rule 4 above. If women students belonging to the Madras Province are not forthcoming in sufficient numbers the vacant seats shall be allotted to men candidates belonging to this Province. The Principals can also admit women candidates in excess of the reserved number of seats if there are sufficient number of qualified candidates.

[10th September 1946

Other instructions.—(1) Applicataions for admission from members of families that have done notable war service will receive special consideration.

(2) Instructions issued in 1946.—For the academic year 1946–47 only, 20 per cent of the total number of seats are reserved for the admission of candidates on the basis of merit, irrespective of the orders fixing linguistic and communal proportions.

(3) Instead of 49 seats reserved for women, 23 per cent of the total number of seats will be reserved.

(4) Ten per cent of the seats will be reserved for ex-service personnel who are natives of the Madras Province and who are eligible for the benefits of the scheme for further education.
